

Tribune Chronicle / Bob Coupland

Honoring the artists

The Warren Philharmonic Orchestra held a special Music in Art concert at Christ Episcopal Church in Warren for Halloween. The event included a costume parade and musical numbers. Several area children were recognized for their artwork and essays. This was the third year for the event. Among those recognized were, from left, Allison Hoffman, seventh grade; Danielle Bradley, fourth grade; and Marissa Gray, fourth grade. To see or purchase this photo and other items, visit cu.tribtoday.com